

Pedro M. Burelli, an international corporate finance and strategy consultant, is the Managing Partner of B+V Advisors, LLC, a firm engaged mostly in advisory assignments in Europe and Latin America. He is also the co-founder of V5 Initiative, a 501c3, focused on issues of democracy, governance and transparency in Latin America. Born in Venezuela, Pedro is an active member of the Venezuelan diaspora and is a frequent commentator on matters dealing with his country, Latin America and Russia. He began his professional career at JPMorgan where he was among others: Head of Mergers & Acquisitions for the Iberian Peninsula, Senior Banker for the Andean Region, and Head of JPMorgan Capital Corporation for Latin America. He was a Member of the Executive Board of Petroleos de Venezuela at the time the largest corporation in Latin America. Pedro is a graduate of the University of Southern California and Harvard's Kennedy School.